

Security and Data Privacy.

Commitment to Privacy. As an organisation, we respect and aim to safeguard member information that is collected by us via our website, emails and/or shared by you via electronic means. We have and continuously develop mechanisms, systems, policies and procedures to safeguard data and privacy, to ensure our customers, users, partners, employees data is secured and safeguarded.

What kind of information do we collect?

- We collect minimal data that identifies you or allows you to be contacted. The minimal information that is collected is to offer you response on our services, as requested by you. In addition, there is optional information that you may choose to give via a message. This enables us to tailor our response to your query/message.
- The information that is collected from you, per your willingness, is stored and kept completely private and confidential.
- We also receive and store details of your visit to our website including, but not limited to, traffic data, location and weblogs. Information such as IP address, visit frequency, browser type is also monitored.

How do we use your information?

- Like any other digital services company, we may send you notifications/email communication to let you know about our services, new features, share our newsletters, updates etc. We do not divulge any information stored with us with any third party- individual or entity. Our aim is to use your information to provide you with the highest levels of service excellence in an efficient, cost effective and friendly manner.
- Only as and when required by law, we may have to part with the information with Government/Statutory/Regulatory Authorities or act in accordance with local laws where required.
- In addition, we may use the provided information to create aggregate reports/analysis, etc in order to further improve our services for our members.
- We will only use your Information in accordance with this policy, and your consent to such usage.

How do we prevent any loss of information?

- We will implement reasonable and appropriate measures designed to help you secure your content/information against accidental or unlawful loss, access or disclosure.
- To avoid any online fraud, we do not collect any financial/banking or credit/debit cards details.
- Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or from our online products or services, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your transmission, we make our best effort to ensure its security on our systems. Ultimately, you are solely responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your passwords and/or any account information. Please be careful and responsible whenever you're online.
- In case of a personal data breach, under the IT Act 2000/GDPR rules or other regulations, CARaero Technologies will notify its applicable clients/users after becoming aware of the breach, as soon as possible. Such notification(s) may be delivered to a user's email address provided by the client/user or by direct communication (e.g. telephone call).

Your Acceptance

- By using this Website, you signify your acceptance of this policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use our Website. Your continued use of the Website following the posting of changes to this policy will be deemed as your acceptance of those changes.

Your Rights

- In certain circumstances, you have the right to, have your personal data erased or restrict processing of your personal data or have your personal data transferred to a third party or update/correct your personal data that we hold.
- If at any time you believe that we has not adhered to these privacy guidelines, please notify us by an email at info@caraerotech.com and we will use all commercially reasonable efforts to promptly determine and correct the problem.
